

Please do not allow the banking industry to repeal the no call law. It has been great to sit down and have dinner with my family without interruption. If I want anybody to call me... I'll let them know.
Thank you